

HELEN KELLER FETE - THANK YOU!

The Helen Keller annual fete was held on 3 November 2012. It was a time of fun, smiles, shopping, eating, laughter, catching up with family, friends, residents, and good volunteer and team work. They raised over R69 000 and wish to thank everyone who was involved beforehand and on the day. Shown above are the volunteer flower sellers: Left to right: Vicki Newton, Di Blackwell, Jackie Grieve, Colleen Levey, Anje Doornbos and Hennie Cronje.

A TRIBUTE TO THE MILITARY MUSICIANS

The massed military bands.

by Mrs Regine Lord

The Cape Town Military Tattoo 2012 was held at the old Castle of Good Hope from Wednesday, 31 October until Saturday, 3 November 2012.

The massed military bands from Cape Town, Kroonstad, Pretoria, Botswana and Congo-Brazzaville entertained the spectators with bagpipes, drums, trumpets, trombones, and violins, as the full moon rose over the castle walls. The SA Navy's Silent Drill Squad showed that precision drill movements could be controlled entirely by the beat of the drum. Visiting from the Netherlands was the Historical Drum Corps of the Royal Dutch Military Police. Three youth groups added to the musical extravaganza. The Westcott Primary School Instrumental Group enchanted with soprano and treble recorders, Orff instruments and Djembe drums. The Senior Steel Band of Wynberg Boys' High School played a selection of mellow music. And the lovely long-legged lasses of the Celtic Dance Tapestry and the Claddagh Studio displayed exceptionally nimble footwork with their hard shoe and soft shoe dancing routines.

The saluting troop of Cape Field Artillery closed the evening dramatically with the sound of gunfire from their 25-pounder guns incorporated into Tchaikovsky's famous 1812 Overture. This powerful musical piece has become the signature act of the Cape Town Military Tattoo.
